- 4.1. In terms of POPIA, Data Subjects have the following rights:
 - 4.1.1. to be notified that personal information about him, her or it is being collected;
 - 4.1.2. to be notified that personal information about him, her or it is being accessed or acquired by an unauthorised person;
 - 4.1.3. to establish whether a responsible party holds personal information of that Data Subject and to request access to his, her or its personal information;
 - 4.1.4. to request, where necessary, the correction, destruction or deletion of his, her, or its personal information;
 - 4.1.5. to object, on reasonable grounds relating to his, her or its particular situation to the processing of his, her or its personal information;
 - 4.1.6. not to have his, her or its personal information processed for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications;
 - 4.1.7. not to be subject, under certain circumstances, to a decision which is based solely on the basis of the automated processing of his, her or its personal information intended to provide a profile of such person;
 - 4.1.8. to submit a complaint to the Regulator regarding the alleged interference with the protection of Personal Information of any Data Subject or to submit a complaint to the Regulator in respect of a determination of an adjudicator; and
 - 4.1.9. to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged interference with the protection of his, her or its Personal Information.

5. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 5.1. The Company shall ensure that all Personal Information is processed lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe the privacy of the Data Subject.
- 5.2. Personal Information may only be processed if, given the purpose for which it is processed, it is adequate, relevant and not excessive.

6. CONSENT

- 6.1. If consent is relied upon as required by POPIA for the purposes of processing, holding and/or the storage of any Personal Information, then such Personal Information may be processed, only if:
 - 6.1.1. the Data Subject consents to the processing;
 - 6.1.2. the Processing of the Personal Information is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract to which the Data Subject is a party;
 - 6.1.3. the Processing complies with a legal obligation as imposed by laws on the Company;
 - 6.1.4. the Processing protects a legitimate interest of the Data Subject;
 - 6.1.5. the Processing is necessary for the proper performance of a public law duty by a public body; or
 - 6.1.6. the Processing is necessary for the pursuance of a legitimate interest of the Company or a third party to whom the information is supplied.
- 6.2. With regards to Special Personal Information, the Company may only process such information under the following circumstances:
 - 6.2.1. The Data Subject consents to such processing;
 - 6.2.2. The Special Personal Information was deliberately made public by the Data Subject;
 - 6.2.3. The Processing is necessary for the establishment of a right or defence in law; or The Processing is required for historical, statistical, or research reasons. In the event that the Processing is in respect of race or ethnic original, then such Processing must comply with affirmative action laws.
- 6.3. All Data Subjects have the right to refuse or withdraw their consent to the Processing of their Personal Information and/or Special Personal Information, and a Data Subject may object, at any time, to the Processing of their Personal Information and/or Special Personal Information on any of the above grounds, unless legislation provides for such processing. If the Data Subject withdraws consent or objects to Processing then the Company shall forthwith refrain from Processing the Personal Information and/or Special Personal Information.

7. DATA RETENTION AND RESTRICTION

- 7.1 The Company shall collect Personal Information for a specific and explicitly defined and lawful purpose related to its functions or activities and it shall inform the Data Subject thereof.
- 7.2 The Company shall not retain any Personal Information for any longer than it is necessary in light of the purposes for which it was originally collected, held, stored or subsequently processed. This may include if retention is authorised by law, the record is required for lawful purposes related to its functions or activities or it is required by a contract between the parties.
- 7.3 The Company may retain records of Personal Information for periods in excess of those contemplated in clause 7.2 above if it is for historical, statistical or research purposes provided that the Company has established the necessary and appropriate safeguards against the records being used for other purposes.
- 7.4 The Company shall destroy or delete a record of Personal Information or De-Identify it as soon as reasonably practicable after the Company is no longer authorised to retain the record in terms of clause 7.2 or 7.3 above. The record shall be destroyed or deleted in a manner that prevents its reconstruction in an intelligible form.
- 7.5 The Company shall restrict processing of any Personal Information if the accuracy of the Personal Information is contested by the Data Subject, for a period enabling the Company to verify the accuracy of the information. Such Personal Information shall be further restricted if the processing is unlawful and the Data Subject opposes its destruction or deletion and requests that it be restricted.
- 7.6 The Company shall restrict processing of any Personal Information if the information is no longer required for the purpose it was collected or subsequently processed, but it has to be maintained for purposes of proof.

8. FURTHER PROCESSING OF DATA

- 8.1 New processing activity must be compatible with original purpose of processing. Any further processing will be regarded as compatible with the purpose of collection if:
- 8.1.1 The Data Subject has consented to the further processing of Personal Information;
 - 8.1.2 The Personal Information is contained in a public record;
 - 8.1.3 The Personal Information has been deliberately made public by the Data Subject;
 - 8.1.4 Further processing is necessary to maintain, comply with or exercise any law or legal right; or
 - 8.1.5 Further processing is necessary to prevent or mitigate a threat to public health or safety, or the life or health of the Data Subject or that of a third party.

9. INFORMATION QUALITY

- 9.1 The Company shall take reasonable steps to ensure that the Personal Information received from Data Subjects is accurate, complete and not misleading. However, this will also be dependant on the Data Subject providing the Company with Personal Information that is accurate, complete and not misleading.
- 9.2 The Company shall periodically review the Data Subjects records to ensure that the Personal Information is still valid and correct. Data Subjects should as far as reasonably practical follow the following guidance when collecting Personal Information;
- 9.3 The Personal Information shall be dated by the Company on the date it is received from the Data Subject;
- 9.4 A record shall be kept by the Company of where i.e. email or company form, the Personal Information was obtained from the Data Subject;
- 9.5 A record shall be kept of when Personal Information has been changed or updated by Company or Data Subject;
- 9.6 Any irrelevant or unneeded Personal Information shall be deleted, de-identified or destroyed by the Company; and
- 9.7 Personal Information shall be stored securely, either on a secure electronic database or in a secure, physical filing system in the respective departments office.

10. NOTIFICATION OF DATA COLLECTION TO DATA SUBJECTS

- 10.1 When the Company collects any Personal Information, prior to such collection, it shall notify Data Subjects of the following:
- 10.1.1 the purpose of which the Personal Information is being collected from the Data Subject;
 - 10.1.2 whether the supply of the Personal Information by the Data Subject is voluntary or mandatory and the consequences of a failure to provide such information;
 - 10.1.3 whether collection of the Personal Information is in terms of law authorising or requiring the collection of such information;
 - 10.1.4 whether the Company intends to transfer the Personal Information to another country or international organisation and the level of protection afforded to that Personal Information by the other country or international organisation; or
 - 10.1.5 whether the Company intend to transfer the Personal Information to a third party.
- 10.2 If the Company has previously taken steps referred to under clause 10.1 above when it collected information from Data Subjects, it is not necessary for the Company to comply with the above, if the subsequent collection from the Data Subjects is the same information or information of the same kind if the purpose of collection of the information remains the same.
- 10.3 It is not necessary for the Company to comply with the sub-clause under clause 10.1 if the collection of information is to avoid prejudice to the maintenance of the law by a public body, to comply with an obligation imposed by law, to enforce legislation concerning the collection of revenue, for the conduct of proceedings in any court or tribunal, in the interests of national security or if compliance would prejudice a lawful purpose of the collection or it is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances of a particular case.

11. DATA SUBJECT'S ACCESS TO DATA

- 11.1 Data Subject, with adequate proof of indemnity, shall have the right to:
- 11.1.1 request the Company to confirm that it holds Personal Information about it;
 - 11.1.2 request from the Company a description of the Personal Information held by it or any third party.
- 11.2 All such requests shall be submitted in writing to the Information Officer. The Company, may refuse, as the case may be, to disclose any information requested in terms of clause 11.1 on the following grounds of refusal:
- 11.2.1 the Company is protecting Personal Information about a third person (who is a natural person) including a deceased person, from unreasonable disclosure;
 - 11.2.2 the Company is protecting Personal Information about a third party or the Company in respect of a trade secret, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of the Company and its affiliated companies or the interests of a third party;
 - 11.2.3 if the disclosure of the record would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement or contract;
 - 11.2.4 if the disclosure of the record would endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
 - 11.2.5 if the disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the security of property or means of transport;
 - 11.2.6 if the disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of a person in accordance with a witness protection scheme;
 - 11.2.7 if the disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of the safety of the public;
 - 11.2.8 if the record is privileged from production in legal proceedings, unless the legal privilege has been waived;
 - 11.2.9 if the disclosure of the record (containing trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information) would harm the commercial or financial interests of the Company;
 - 11.2.10 if the disclosure of the record would put the Company at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
 - 11.2.11 the record is a computer programme; or
 - 11.2.12 the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or the Company.
- 11.3 If the Company has searched for a record requested by a Data Subject (the "Requester") and it is believed that the record does not exist or cannot be found, the Requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This will include the steps that were taken by the Company to try to locate the record.

12. RECTIFICATION AND CORRECTION OF DATA

- 12.1 The Data Subject may request the Company to rectify, correct or delete any Personal Information that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete or obtained unlawfully.
- 12.2 The Company must, within one (1) month of the Data Subject requesting the Company to either correct, destroy or delete the Personal Information. The period can be extended to a further month, if the Data Subject's request is a complex request. The Company shall notify the Data Subject of the action taken as a result of the request and provide it with proof thereof.
- 12.3 In the event that the Personal Information has been disclosed to any third parties, the Data Subject must make the request to that party.

13. SECURITY MEASURES ON INTEGRITY AND CONFIDENTIALITY OF DATA

The Company must secure the integrity and confidentiality of Personal Information in its possession or under its control by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent either the loss of, damage to or unauthorised destruction of Personal Information or the unlawful access to or processing of Personal Information.

14. CROSS BORDER TRANSFERS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 14.1 The Company may not transfer Personal Information about a Data Subject to a third party who is in a foreign country unless:
- 14.1.1 the third party who is the recipient of the information is subject to a law, Binding Corporate Rules or binding agreement which provide an adequate level of protection that:
 - 14.1.1.1 effectively upholds principles for reasonable processing of the information that are substantially similar to the conditions for the lawful processing of Personal Information relating to a Data Subject who is a natural person and, where applicable, a juristic person; and
 - 14.1.1.2 includes provisions, that are substantially similar to this section, relating to the further transfer of Personal Information from the recipient to third parties who are in a foreign country;
 - 14.1.1.3 the Data Subject consents to the transfer;
 - 14.1.1.4 the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the Data Subject and the responsible party, or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken in response to the Data Subject's request;
 - 14.1.1.5 the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interest of the Data Subject between the Responsible Party and a third party; or
 - 14.1.1.6 the transfer is for the benefit of the Data Subject and it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the Data Subject to that transfer and if it were reasonably practicable to obtain such consent, the Data Subject would be likely to give it.

15. FOREIGN COUNTRIES NOT SUBJECT TO ANY DATA PROTECTION LAWS AND/OR REGULATIONS

- 15.1 In the event that the Company transfers Personal Information to a foreign country where there is no EU declaration of adequate safeguards and/or where juristic personal information is processed), it shall ensure that it:
- 15.1.1 carries out due diligence checks of the data protection laws (if any) that are in place in the foreign country that they wish to export the Personal Information to;
 - 15.1.2 obtains advice on the laws in that foreign country that permit access to Personal Information by government agencies; and
 - 15.1.3 puts in place the appropriate safeguards in comprehensive data-transfer agreements through the use of properly worded Standard Contractual Clauses (that set safeguard standards for the transfer of Personal Information) or binding corporate rules (which would only apply to transfers of Personal Information within a group of companies).

16. DIRECT MARKETING

- 16.1 Direct marketing, including unsolicited direct electronic marketing is prohibited unless the Data Subject has consented to the receipt of this marketing material.
- 16.2 In order to ensure that direct marketing is sent out in a lawful manner, all Personnel must ensure that:
- 16.2.1 all of the Company's customers, when approached or dealt with for the first time, are given the opportunity in an informal manner to agree or disagree to the receipt of any of the Company's direct marketing material, if applicable;

- 16.2.2 before direct marketing is sent to a non-customer that such person provides his, her, or its consent thereto;
- 16.2.3 when marketing material is sent to Data Subjects, the Company must allow Data Subject the ability to opt out of any further marketing material; and
- 16.2.4 when a Data Subject exercises his, her or its right to object to receiving direct marketing, in the form then this shall be recorded and given effect to and no further direct marketing shall be sent to a Data Subject that has opted out of receiving any direct marketing from the Company.

17. REPORTING BREACHES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 17.1 In the event of a breach of any Personal Information, the Company has a duty to give notice of such breach to the Information Regulator in the case of a breach in South Africa and to the affected Data Subjects;
- 17.2 The Company has put in place appropriate procedures to deal with any breaches of Personal Information and will promptly notify the Information Regulator and / or the affected Data Subjects, as the case may be when it is legally required to do so.
- 17.3 In the event of a breach of Personal Information, the Company's employees have a duty to immediately report through to the Information Officer, any suspected or known Personal Information breach in the form of a report which shall include details in respect of the categories and approximate number of Data Subjects concerned; categories and approximate number of Personal Information records concerned; the likely cause of and the consequences of the breach; details of the measures taken, or proposed to be taken, to address the breach including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects; keep such information strictly private and confidential; not to deal with any persons in relation to the Personal Information breach, including any officials to investigators, noting that only the Information Officer with the approval of the Company's Board has the right to report any Personal Information or security breach to the Information Regulator and / or the affected Data Subjects, as the case may be.

18. ACCEPTANCE AND BINDING NATURE OF THIS DOCUMENT

- 18.1 By providing the Company with the Personal Information which it requires from a Data Subject, the Data Subject:
 - 18.1.1 acknowledge that he/she understands why his/her Personal Information needs to be processed;
 - 18.1.2 accept the terms which will apply to such processing, including the terms applicable to the transfer of such Personal Information cross border;
 - 18.1.3 where consent is required for any processing as reflected in this Processing notice, the Data Subject agrees that the Company may process this particular Personal Information.
- 18.2 Where a Data Subject provides the Company with another individual or legal entity's Personal Information for processing, the Data Subject confirms that that he / she has obtained the required permission from such individual or legal entity to provide the Company with their / its Personal Information for processing.
- 18.3 The rights and obligations of the parties under this Processing Notice will be binding on, and will be of benefit to, each of the parties' successors in title and / or assigns where applicable.
- 18.4 Should any of the Personal Information concern or pertain to a legal entity which the Data Subject represents, the Data Subject shall confirm that he/she has the necessary authority to act on behalf of such legal entity and that he/she has the right to provide the Personal Information and/or the required permissions in respect of the processing of that Company or entities' Personal Information.

19. IMPLEMENTATION OF POLICY

This Policy shall be deemed to be effective as of 30 June 2021. No part of this Policy shall have a retroactive effect and will only apply to matter occurring on or after this date.
